Doyle Construction Inc.:
Earns Spot on San Francisco Business Times' "Fast 100" List

SAN FRANCISCO (Oct. 20, 2006) -- Doyle Construction Inc. (DCI), one of the leading commercial construction firms in the Bay Area, has been named one of 100 fastest-growing private companies in the Bay Area by the San Francisco Business Times.

Each year the San Francisco Business Times compiles its "Fast 100" list, an annual ranking of the fastest-growing companies in the area based on revenue growth from 2003 to 2005.

DCI was honored as number six on the "Fast 100" list with a revenue growth rate of 560 percent in 2005. Revenues topped $7.1 million in 2005, up from $1 million three years ago.

"We are delighted to be honored by the Business Times," said David Doyle, president and CEO of DCI. "We've seen tremendous growth after only four years in operation, and that's attributable to our focus on providing top-notch construction services and unparalleled customer service."

Construction was one of the most prevalent industries on this year's "Fast 100" list, reflecting the Bay Area's return to robust economic times, according to the Business Times.

More than 200 applicants vied for inclusion on the Times' "Fast 100" list. To qualify, companies must be headquartered in the counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco, San Mateo and the city of Palo Alto.
